This is a rollicking version of a hymn that is generally played in a rather stately fashion. The bassline is moving nearly constantly, with occasion measures of straight alternating-bass thrown in (Ms. 1, 4, 9, etc.). Watch for the left-hand slides from one position to the next (Ms. 2-3, and M. 4, for instance). These moves provide access to new and different voicings. For you tablature readers who have questions about LH fingering, look up into the standard notation - many of the unusual fingerings are notated there.

Play this at a fast tempo. It sounds particular great with a muted bass picked by a thumbpick! -Mark Hanson
